

Building Black Pride: Infancy through Adolescence

Online Workshop for Linn, Benton, and Lincoln County Families

Este Taller solo
está disponible en
inglés.
Comuníquese con
Pollywog al (541)
497-4358 para
clases en español.

One-Time Workshop
Online presentation April 13, 2022

Thursday 5:00 pm- 7:00 pm
Zoom Link and Password information will be provided at time of registration

Please note that this is a remote presentation and access to an internet device with a camera and microphone is needed

For more information or to register
email Sommer:

smcleish@samhealth.org

self-registration:

forms.gle/NQ862bV1JPX5317C9

Building Black Pride

Pride In Blackness:

This workshop will discuss the Positive Communication efforts and affirming positive affirmations around being Black. Topics include African Heritage, Courage/Achievements of African People, Strengths of Black Families, and Unique Black Customs and Language. In this workshop we will also discuss how to avoid Black Put-Downs and Help Children Understand and Cope with Racism.

FREE for families with children of all ages

About the presenter

Terrance I Harris, M.Ed has over 10 years of experience as a Higher Ed professional along with 8 years of experience as a peer educator, parent coach, and tobacco cessation specialist. He instructs parenting courses for Linn & Benton Counties and is certified through the Effective Black Parenting program.

